Legion Post Holds Dinner-Program

A dinner-program was held by members of Bert S. Crossland Post, American Legion, Tuesday night at the Carson street clubhouse. Ed Bird, assisted by James H. Scott, D. A. Murphy and W. W. Rowland, managed the dinner while Rowland, first vice-commander and membership chairman, was in charge of the entertainment.

Another thing sincerely disliked about the School of Experience is that it never suspends for a vacation.

Musicians Invited to Join Orchestra

A community orchestra is being organized at Gardena Evening high school under direction of Olivia M. Baker. All musicians in this area are cordially invited to join and participate in several programs being planned for the near future. Rehearsals are being held each Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Gardena high school, 168th and Normandie avenue.

New York Fair had its biggest attendance on the day war was declared. The Court of Peace was packed.

Supervisors Miss Weekly Meeting

Next meeting of the board of supervisors will be Tuesday, Oct. 24, barring an emergency, it appeared today at the Hall of Records.

Omission of Tuesday's meeting was necessitated by the departure of Supervisor William A. Smith Tuesday morning on a vacation and flood control inspection trip. Supervisors John Anson Ford and Gordon L. McDonough are in Washington.

Supervisor Oscar Hauge is winding up a 5-weeks' leave of absence, and Chairman Roger Jessup said he planned to go hunting Oct. 19.

STATE PICNICS

WEST VIRGINIA and Mc-GUFFEY CLUB . . . The annual fall picnic reunion for West Virginia folks and also the McGuffey club will be held Saturday, Oct. 28, in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Each West Virginia county will open registers as will the McGuffey club. A program will follow the basket dinner hour.

NORTH DAKOTA . . . Former residents of North Dakota and visitors from that state are invited to attend the banquet at the Chapman Park hotel, 615 South Alexandria avenue, Los Angeles, Thursday evening, Nov. 2. The day marks the "golden anniversary" of North Dakota's statehood. A picnic reunion will be held all day Nov. 2 at Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles.

COLOR IS APPROPRIATE . . . Don't be surprised at seeing the girls wearing the new "Jungle Red" color on their nails. Rosalind Russell introduces it to Norma Shearer in "The Women," opening at the Plaza theatre in Hawthorne on Sunday. Miss Russell portraying a vicious gossip who destroys her friends' reputations, the new nail color is appropriately named.

U. S. Navy Band Concert Oct. 26

For the first time in many years the United States Band of Washington, D. C., is coming to Los Angeles.

This great band is conceded to be the top-ranking organization of its kind in the world, and represents the entire naval forces of the country. Unlike famous bands of former years, whose chief forte has been martial music, the Navy Band has gained renown in almost every field of instrumental music. The latest dance hits, symphonies and solos by foremost musicians are included in its programs.

Two concerts will be given at the Shrine Auditorium, 685 West Jefferson street in Los Angeles. The date selected is Oct. 26, which appropriately is the day before Navy Day. A special matinee will be given for students and school children at 3 p. m. at nominal admission prices.

The evening concert at 8:30 p. m. will be one of the brilliant musical affairs of the past several years. The net proceeds of both concerts will be divided equally between the Navy Relief Society and the Welfare Branch of Los Angeles county American Legion. Tickets may be secured at all Mutual ticket agencies. Reserved seats for the evening will be 55c, 83c and $1.10 (tax included). For school matinee, students up to 16 years of age 25c, and over 16 years 40c.

Indigestion Found Cause of Dog's Death

Until an autopsy was performed on the animal, a thoroughbred dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Williams of 1012 Cedar avenue was believed a victim of a poisoner Tuesday. However, investigation at an animal hospital disclosed that the dog died of indigestion.

IT'S TRUE . . . that Cambodia's Temple of Angkor Vat, one of the most colorful and mystifying remnants of a forgotten civilization, was recreated for a love scene between Robert Taylor and Hedy Lamarr in "Lady of the Tropics" which opens Sunday at the Grand theatre, Torrance.

HIS TOMORROW UNCERTAIN . . . Above is Charles Boyer and Irene Dunn in a scene from "When Tomorrow Comes," opening at the Lomita theatre Sunday. The title is strangely apt because Boyer is now reported serving in the French army his screen career interrupted by war.
